Romy Catmull

Call Date: 2025

Romy Catmull is our 2026-2027 pupil. Romy's pupillage commences on 5th October 2026.

Before commencing pupillage, Romy served as a Judicial Assistant to Lord Justice Dingemans at the Court of Appeal and then worked at the European Court of Human Rights for Judge Gnatovskyy, elected in respect of Ukraine. Prior to this, she worked as a commercial litigation paralegal and, most recently, was a Legal Fellow at JUSTICE. She has assisted with matters ranging from the reform of civil behavioural control orders to complex commercial and public law appeals.

Romy studied History and English at the University of Oxford before obtaining a dual LLM and Master's in International Relations at Sciences Po and Peking University. She subsequently received a scholarship from Lincoln's Inn and completed the GDL with Distinction. She was recently called to the Bar as a Lord Denning residential scholar.

Memberships

- The Honourable Society of Lincoln's Inn
- Administrative Law Bar Association (ALBA)

Education

- BA (History and English), University of Oxford
- Dual LLM and MA (Human Rights and Humanitarian Action), Sciences Po and (International Relations), Peking University
- Graduate Diploma in Law, City University
- Bar Vocational Course, Inns of Court College of Advocacy

Languages

- French (Intermediate)

3 Hare Court, Temple, London EC4Y 7BJ | T: +44 (0)20 7415 7800 | E: clerks@3harecourt.com

- Cantonese (Conversational)
- Mandarin (Conversational)

Awards

- Lord Denning Scholarship, Lincoln's Inn (2023)
- Residential Scholarship, Lincoln's Inn (2023)
- Lord Haldane Scholarship, Lincoln's Inn (2020)
- Fung Scholarship, Fung Foundation (2016)

3 Hare Court, Temple, London EC4Y 7BJ | T: +44 (0)20 7415 7800 | E: clerks@3harecourt.com