

Anna Lancy

Call Date: 2021

Anna has a civil practice comprising commercial law, civil fraud, international arbitration, insolvency, public law and appeals to the Privy Council. Anna frequently appears in trials, interim applications and preliminary hearings, in addition to managing a busy paperwork practice. Her practice has both a domestic and an international dimension.

Before joining the English Bar, Anna practised for over 5 years as a solicitor, in Melbourne and London. Her practice focused on commercial law, civil fraud and human rights. Whilst at KPMG Law, Anna advised on a range of high-profile and complex disputes for governments and leading corporates including LafargeHolcim and Chevron. Anna remains an Australian Legal Practitioner.

Alongside her work, Anna has undertaken a variety of pro bono legal work, including collaborating with the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) on an advocacy piece in favour of the Kenyan government shifting its refugee policy. She also supported a former interpreter to the British Army relocate his family from Kabul to the UK under the Afghan Relocations and Assistance Policy scheme.

Legal Services

Commercial

Anna is developing a broad practice encompassing all aspects of commercial litigation and advisory work. She regularly appears in a range of general commercial matters.

Notable cases and highlights include:

- Represented a UK distribution company against an Austrian manufacturing company in relation to the breach of an exclusive distribution agreement.
- Advised on a complex area of insurance law as to whether the Property Insurance contract was an indemnity contract or a different type of contract, in which there was an obligation on the Defendant to reinstate the Claimant's property. This advice considered the legal doctrine of election (led by Peter Knox KC).
- Advised on the most effective mechanism the Trustee of a Bare Trust could ensure a non-beneficiary of the Bare Trust could use the trust property taking into account the terms of the Bare Trust Deed and law of trusts (led by Tom Poole KC).

3 HARE COURT

- Advised on a compliance matter relating to the Australian Regime for Financial Services as to whether a company which provided claim handling and settling services for a large insurer through their Broker, had to comply with the AFS Licence obligations.
- Challenged the decision of the Financial Ombudsman Service under the Pre-Action Protocol for Judicial Review.

Civil Fraud

Prior to joining the Bar, Anna was a solicitor and represented a high net worth individual with significant assets in the UK as part of a broader class action for allegedly engaging in fraudulent share transactions on the NASDAQ.

Represented shareholders of a Kazakh company in relation to allegations of fraud, corruption and embezzlement.

International Arbitration

Advising a Swiss steel company in relation to challenging an arbitral Award valued at approximately £60 million (led by Richard Samuel).

As a solicitor Anna advised an English mining company in Kosovo in a potential arbitration under the UNCITRAL Rules.

Insolvency

Anna is developing a broad practice encompassing all aspects of insolvency litigation and advisory work.

- Supported Simon Davenport KC and Philip Judd in a high value bankruptcy action arising from disputed judgments obtained in Russia.
- In preparation for trial, prepared an advice for on a complex area of insolvency law considering whether a trustee in bankruptcy / liquidator of a company can reclaim an intellectual property asset held by the bankrupt individual / liquidated company in circumstances where the bankrupt individual / liquidated company failed to disclose possession of the intellectual property asset (led by Simon Davenport KC).
- Anna published an article on the latest cases considering the Cross Border Insolvency Regulation 2006 in Chambers' Travel and Aviation Quarterly – Application of the Cross Border Insolvency Regulations 2006: Astora Women's Health LLC, Re [2022] EWHC 2412 (ChD) (link to article).

Public Law and Appeals to the Privy Council

Anna is developing significant expertise in matters originating from the Commonwealth Caribbean and in appellate work before the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council. Her interest and experience in this area of practice encompasses constitutional law, human rights, judicial review, commercial law, general common law and criminal appeals.

3 HARE COURT

Recent notable work includes:

- Supported Katherine Deal KC in an appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council. This appeal concerned a cross-border clinical negligence action.
- Drafted submissions to defeat the Appellant's claim that the Appellant was entitled to appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council as of right. The matter arose in the Bahamas (led by Tom Poole KC).
- Advised on a possible appeal to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council in relation to a criminal appeal in which the Appellant was convicted of money laundering offences in Saint Vincent and the Grenadines (led by Robert Strang).

Memberships

- The Honourable Society of the Middle Temple
- London Common Law & Commercial Bar Association

Education

- Admitted to practise as an Australian Legal Practitioner in the High Court of Australia and the Supreme Court of the State of Victoria
- Master of Laws (LLM) (Juris Doctor), Monash University, Australia (First Class)
- Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) (Global), Monash University, Australia (First Class)
- Bar Transfer Test, BPP University, London

Awards

- Recipient of the Australian Higher Education Award for Masters of Laws (Juris Doctor) (2014)
- Grant from Monash University to study at Monash University's Prato Campus in Tuscany, Italy (2013)
- Paid internship at the United Nations, World Intellectual Property Organization (2011)
- Grant from Monash University to study at Miami University in Florida, USA (2010)