

Dan Saxby

Call Date: 2000

Dan is frequently instructed by defendant tour operators, travel agents and airlines.

He focuses on package travel litigation, leading group actions in catastrophic injury claims, and advises on questions of jurisdiction and scope of liability.

Legal Services

Personal Injury

To be updated

Travel Law

To be updated

Notable Travel Law cases

[Titshall v. Qwerty Travel \[2011\] EWCA Civ 1569](#)

The Court of Appeal discussed the correct approach to determining whether a customer had been sold a “package” within the meaning of the Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992 reg.2(1). In determining whether components were sold or offered for sale at an inclusive price, it was necessary to answer the factual question of whether the services were being sold or offered for sale as components of a combination, or whether they were being sold or offered for sale separately, but at the same time.

Education

- MA (Law) Girton College, Cambridge.